Growing up, she was influenced by the likes of Chaka Khan, Whitney Houston, and Denise Williams, which helped to shape her mindset toward becoming a singer. With her natural talent and passion for music, Terrill began writing and recording her own songs, and it wasn't long before she caught the attention of industry insiders. She recorded with the DeBarge family on a duet called, 'I'm Still In Love With You'. Terrill also helped write lyrics for Kristina DeBarge's first solo album. She had the pleasure of opening for Faith Evans, Eric Benet, and Tweet at R&B Live Hollywood. Check out Terrill's weekly Friday Night Live Karaoke at 7 pm PST | 10 pm EST on her YouTube channel.
