professional tax advice and planning prior to embarking on and during their EB-5 visa journey. A recent announcement made by the Reserve Bank of India states that the Tax Collected at Source (TCS) on remittances for EB-5 purposes will increase from 5% to 20% in July 2023. Now more than ever, Indian investors will require professional tax advice if they wish to pursue the EB-5 Immigrant Investor Program.” says Vivek Tandon, Esq., Founder and CEO of EB5 BRICS. Vivek Tandon is also a U.S. attorney, investment banker, and licensed U.S. securities specialist.

The announcement of the 20% tax increase followed India's Union Budget 2023 last February 1, 2023. The tax increase covers a 20% Tax Collected at Source (TCS) for EB 5 Visa investment transfers from India.
