DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, April 26, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- One of the country's fastest growing legal tech companies, GrowPath, is demonstrating how its case management software can help law firms of all sizes grow profitably and maximize revenue at this year's PILMMA Super Summit. GrowPath's intake and case management abilities have been recognized nationally by leading software search resources, such as Software Advice and Capterra.

At the Summit, to take place from May 16-18 at the New Orleans Ritz Carlton, GrowPath leaders will demonstrate the software's advanced intake, document management, and marketing ROI tools. Attendees who stop by Booth #48 will also be able to see in person how GrowPath helps manage remote employees and increase staff productivity.

According to GrowPath CEO Joe Velk, "Attorneys come to PILMMA to learn how to market and manage their firms more efficiently and profitably. GrowPath was created for these very reasons. Our intake, case management, and analytics tools help firms increase performance and efficiency throughout every stage of a case."
