

DICTIONATION TIPS for startups

My first dictation: Tips from the "Tippse" for future "dictators" -

Precious tips for startups and lone wolfs to start their first dictation

Tips from the „Tippse“ for future
“dictators”

The short and crisp guideline “My first dictation – tips from the ‘Tippse’ for future ‘dictators’” is a remarkable new book from Irmely Fannis. Written for lone fighters or founders, who want to dictate the first time in their life a profound text, without having yet the help and tips of experienced colleagues. “Words are weapons”, already Kurt Tucholsky knew, too precious to let “AI-machines” do the work. For “dictators”, who are blocked in the moment and cannot find the necessary powerful words, and whose “Tippse” is also not helping, this guideline from a long-time experienced “Tippse” is a fast and powerful help, written with a caring wink in internationally well understood American English.
