“We're delivering the satisfying flavor American families want and the nutritious products they need to live better, longer and healthier lives,” said Duane Cheers, Co-Founder of Everything Legendary.

Kroger currently works with more than 1,600 minority suppliers, and Everything Legendary is proud to be one of them. As Kroger continues to expand, it is committed to having an inclusive supplier community and culture that reflects the diversity of its associates and customers.

Customers can now purchase Everything Legendary Classic Burgers and Cheeseburgers at Kroger banner stores including, Fred Meyer, City Market, Ralph's, Fry's Food & Drug, King Soopers, Smith's, Quality Food Centers, Mariano's, Pick 'n Save, and Metro Market.

“We are thrilled that our Cheeseburgers, which were featured on the hit TV show ‘Shark Tank,’ are now available at select Kroger stores,” said Danita Claytor, Co-Founder of Everything Legendary. “Seeing our products on grocery store shelves has been a dream come true,” she added.

Customers can visit the website and use the store locator to find a Kroger store in their area. Products are available for pick up, same-day delivery and shipping depending upon the specific store.

“To support our brand, visit a Kroger store and purchase our products,” said Vincent Parker, Chief Operating Officer at Everything Legendary. “If our products are not available in your area, contact your local store and ask them to consider carrying our products," he added.
