

Arbitration Resolution Services, Inc. Announces Appointment of Scott Crutcher to Board of Directors

*Newest Director and CTO Leads Arb-IT™ 3.0
Arbitration and Mediation Platform Launch*

CORAL SPRINGS, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, April 26, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Arbitration Resolution Services, Inc. (ARS), a leader in online alternative dispute resolution services since 2012, announces Scott Crutcher's appointment to the Board of Directors after leading the design and launch of Arb-IT™ 3.0 Arbitration and Mediation Platform in the role of Chief Technology Officer. This brings the number of board members to five.

Arbitration Resolution Services, Inc.

“Scott Crutcher has been an instrumental member of our team and so it’s fitting he is being appointed to the ARS Board of Directors,” stated Mark Norych, President of ARS. “Scott’s work streamlining process design from the user perspective helped define the ARS 3.0 mission and we’re excited to see it continue to grow with a white label version of the platform brand conscious law firms and legal services organizations can leverage.”

“ The ARS mission is to increase awareness and access to alternative dispute resolution (ADR) for businesses and consumers—in real life.” Scott Crutcher

“There is tremendous need to increase awareness and access to alternative dispute resolution (ADR) for businesses and consumers—in real life.” stated Scott Crutcher, ARS Board of Directors member and Chief Technology Officer. “Too often technology is overly complex for users and not sustainably accessible due to cost. #adr4irl is a message to our current and future clients and users that Arb-IT™ 3.0 is designed to work for them irl, in-real-life.”

About Scott Crutcher

Scott Crutcher contributes more than 20 years of technology expertise to many companies, leveraging his deep experience in a variety of SaaS, consumer web and e-commerce technologies and development methodologies. Scott most recently led the planning and development of an online dispute resolution platform that enables settlement of financial disputes using a patented double-blind bid algorithm; a platform that assists teams in solving complex innovation gaps, used by Fortune 500 companies; and a HIPAA compliant, proprietary platform that facilitates virtual inpatient care between hospitals and remote physicians. Scott holds a Bachelor of Architecture Degree from Kansas State University.

About Arbitration Resolution Services, Inc.
