ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, April 26, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Southern Black Girls and Women's Consortium \(Southern Black Girls\) has announced that the 2023 Black Girls Dream Conference is headed to Memphis, TN! The two-day event is free and open to the public, and will take place Friday, June 9 - Saturday, June 10, 2023 at the Sheraton Memphis Downtown (250 N. Main St., Memphis, TN 38103). Curated by Cynthia Daniels & Co., the 2023 Black Girls Dream Conference is designed to be a safe space full of love, fun and sisterhood as well as an experience that inspires, empowers, and cultivates the dreams of southern Black girls, gender-expansive youth and Black women of all ages.

"We are so excited about this year's Black Girls Dream Conference and we're so ready to gather together in Memphis," shares an excited Malikah Berry Rogers, executive director of the Southern Black Girls and Women's Consortium. "As with all of our events, we create space for Black girls and women to not just be inspired, but to actually connect and have meaningful conversations that are centered around our individual and shared realities. This conference is our common ground to celebrate us, to learn new things and to clearly state our needs and share our wisdom and resources that will help us create Black women-led solutions for the south and beyond!"

When you give Black women the grace and space to dream, it opens a new path for us to activate and elevate higher toward our destiny. That is what the Black Girls Dream Conference is all about.”

*LaTosha Brown - Visionary
Founder, Southern Black Girls*

The 2023 Black Girls Dream Conference will host a series of dynamic, interactive workshops led by inspiring speakers as well as impactful conversations centering mental wellness, health, beauty, social justice, financial literacy, and much more.

In addition to interactive workshops and compelling discussions, the conference will also include signature moments such as, the “We Got Now!” panel featuring today’s youth leaders and activists; the “Daughters of the Movement” fireside chat featuring female change makers of our past who are still impacting our present; a must-see/must-do silent pajama party for youth attendees between the ages of 12-24; and a private “Women’s Wine Down” event for adult attendees ages 21+. Meals will also be provided on both days.

“The Black Girls Dream Conference is a must-see, must-do experience,” declares LaTosha Brown, visionary founder of Southern Black Girls. “We are creating space for girls to dream, which is the first step to putting your vision in motion, and we believe that when you give Black women the grace and space to dream, it opens a new path for us to activate and elevate higher toward our destiny. That is what the Black Girls Dream Conference is all about.”
