internationally recognized artists, entertainers and over 100 vendors. Proceeds from the event benefit “The James Jr. Fund,” a non-profit organization that provides financial assistance to families of children battling cancer.

"It's great to see the tattoo community come together at one event to support The James Jr. Fund," said event organizer Lisa Quinter. "We've seen first-hand the difference our help makes in these families' lives and we're just proud to be part of that effort."

Attendees Visit Exhibitors and Vendors at Tattoo Expo

Joey Tattoo, former host of TV's “Tattoo Rescue,” will serve as MC for the Expo weekend, as attendees have the chance to get tattooed by renowned artists—including “Ink Master” Season

10 finalist, Roly T-Rex; Nick DeMars from Season 1 of “Ink Masters: Angels” and many other celebs from the ink world. Artists will compete daily for recognition among their peers, judged by tattoo legends Yallzee, Chris “Casper” Pitre, and Alwin Perez. The main stage features entertainment by “Dr. Finnegan’s Circus”—a self-proclaimed “shock show”, comedian Justin Silva will provide the laughs, as well as a host of live music throughout the weekend.

It's great to see the tattoo community come together at one event to support The James Jr. Fund. It really makes a difference in these families' lives and we're proud to be part of that effort.”

The James Jr. Fund

The James Jr. Fund is a non-profit organization that provides financial assistance to families of children who are battling cancer. The fund was established in memory of James Jr, a young boy who lost his battle with leukemia at the age of 15. The fund helps families cover the cost of medical bills, travel expenses, and other related expenses, allowing them to focus on their child's health and well-being.
