“Refugees in the U.S. do not get enough assistance, so being able to provide them with our (LIFE) support is quite rewarding,” said Dr. Hany Saqr, CEO. “They have already been forced to uproot and leave their home countries to start a new life here in the U.S., which is stressful enough on its own, so we are happy to provide refugee families with food baskets to diminish their worries of providing meals for their families over the course of the month,” he continued.

Food baskets consisted of staple food items to get families through a month, such as: cooking oil, rice, dates, sugar, flour, canned food items and more. LIFE supports refugees globally through by providing them with basic living needs such as food, shelter and clean water.
