

Artist Kate Boyle Unveils Personal Collection of Vintage 70's Children's Clothing for Sale

Timeless Treasures from Artist's Childhood Wardrobe Now Available for a New Generation

QUEENSBURY, NY, UNITED STATES, May 3, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Artist Kate Boyle is excited to announce the sale of her personal collection of vintage children's clothing from the early 1970s. Showcasing an array of beloved brands such as Polly Flinders, Youngland, Thomas, Baby Togs, Joey, Fun Frills, L'Enfant, Ruth of Carolina, Tiny Tots, Nannette, and Kim Originals, this sale offers a rare opportunity for fashion enthusiasts, collectors, and parents to acquire a piece of history and nostalgia. Kate says "My mother lovingly preserved each of these garments with utmost care, and upon opening the boxes, it's astonishing to see that most appear as though they've never been worn."

Many of the items in Kate's collection are union made and proudly crafted in the USA. Sizes range from 12 months to six or seven years old, with measurements provided to account for the differences in sizing standards over the years. These charming vintage clothes are perfect for today's children or as unique additions to a doll's wardrobe.

To purchase these one-of-a-kind pieces, customers can visit Kate's Instagram page @mypollyflinders or her eBay shop. MyPollyFlinders. While the entire collection has yet to be listed for sale, be sure to visit Kate's online platforms frequently to discover newly added pieces and stay up-to-date with the ever-evolving selection of timeless garments. For any questions or further information, interested buyers can contact Kate directly through her Instagram account or via eBay.

Kate's passion for art, fashion, and nostalgia has inspired her to share her personal collection of vintage children's clothing, offering others the chance to experience the charm and allure of these timeless garments.
