

TwelveStone Health Partners Announces Cumming, GA Opening

Joining Other Locations Supporting Cities Surrounding the Greater Atlanta Area

MURFREESBORO, TN, USA, May 2, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Twelve Stone Health Partners, a leading provider of comprehensive chronic care medication services, announces to the greater Atlanta business and healthcare community the opening of the newest Georgia Infusion Center in mid-April, 2023.

The address is 2920 Ronald Reagan Blvd, Suite 103, Cumming, Georgia 30041. This is TwelveStone's 11th location, joining existing Infusion Centers in Tennessee (North Nashville, Murfreesboro, Mt. Juliet, Bellevue, Knoxville, and Chattanooga) along with Canton, GA and Roanoke, VA. These facilities provide a patient-centric process with a focus on assisting patients with chronic condition management.

"We are thrilled to expand just outside of the Atlanta area partnering with Kimberly Scheffel MSN, APRN, FNP-C and her team," shared Shane Reeves, chief executive officer, TwelveStone Health Partners. "It is a blessing to offer an exceptional patient experience to the residents of this community."

Patients receive care in a private treatment room, and benefit from the care and support of certified clinicians. Free Wi-Fi, snacks and drinks are also offered to patients and caregivers which creates a positive patient experience with personalized attention.

"We are excited to bring this much needed service to our community for chronic care," shares Kimberly Scheffel. "We are thankful for our partnership with TwelveStone Health Partners." Learn more about TwelveStone Health Partner's innovative infusion centers here.
