BROOKLYN, NEW YORK, USA, May 3, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Brighton Ballet Theater (BBT) is excited to announce the upcoming 36th Annual Children's Festival, "The World of Dance," which will take place on Thursday, June 22nd, 2023, at 6:30 PM, at the Leon M. Goldstein Performing Arts Center in Brooklyn, NY. Every year this festival is the highlight of BBT's season and promises to showcase the talents of its young dancers and provide an inspiring opportunity for them to perform on a professional stage.

Despite the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, BBT is thrilled to continue serving the community and to provide this special event for the young dancers. The festival features various dances choreographed especially for young students aged 2 to 18 in the Children's Division, contemporary dance and character dance programs for Open Division students, and classical ballet repertoire for Advanced Division students.

This year's main feature is the original ballet "Mavka," which celebrates Mr. Kouchnarev's Ukrainian heritage and uses authentic Ukrainian costuming, dance movements, and elements. This program is supported, in part, by public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs.

BBT places a major emphasis on creating live stage performance opportunities for its students, and the festival provides an enriching experience as they dance alongside professional dancers.

Each year, the festival is enjoyed by a thriving and supportive New York cultural community, and the Children's Festival "The World of Dance" is a special event for BBT students to share with friends, family and dance enthusiasts.

"We are thrilled to announce the 36th Annual Children's Festival 'The World of Dance'," said Irina Roizin, Executive Director of Brighton Ballet Theater. "Despite the challenges we have faced due to the pandemic, we are excited to continue serving the community and providing this inspiring opportunity for our young dancers to showcase their talents. We look forward to welcoming the New York community to this special event.

Tickets are now available for purchase and can be secured through multiple channels. Those interested in attending the festival can purchase tickets online at www.bbtballet.org, over the phone by calling 929-610-2117, or in person at the office of BBT by appointment.
