

FEMA Urges Insurance Claimants to Document Damage and File Claims After Historic Flood Event in South Florida

Home Safe Claims Advises Homeowners on How Best to Secure Financial Compensation After Devastating Rainfall in Broward County

FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, May 3, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Residents of Broward County, Florida are still reeling from the devastation caused by a record-breaking, once-in-1,000-year flood event that resulted in an emergency flash flood. On April 13th, 2023, the National Weather Service in Miami (NWS Miami) reported over 25.91 inches of rain fell within a 24-hour period in Fort Lauderdale, leaving cars submerged and homes and businesses damaged. This major storm impacted countless lives and caused extensive property damage throughout the region.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has urged individuals in Broward county with either flood or renters’ insurance to submit damage claims as soon as possible to the respective insurance companies, noting the importance of documenting damage and keeping receipts for purchases related to the damage repairs. In the same article, FEMA also mentioned that those without insurance may also be eligible for federal assistance.

Considering this difficult situation, Home Safe Claims, an experienced south Florida public adjuster company has been in the business for many years is offering the company’s expertise and assistance to homeowners and business owners affected by this natural disaster. Eduardo Rodriguez, Chief Operating Officer of Home Safe Claims stated, “Our goal is to make sure that everyone impacted by this storm receives the financial compensation needed to rebuild without having to worry about additional costs”.

Navigating through an insurance claim can be challenging for people unfamiliar with the process - especially when dealing with such a catastrophic event as this one in Broward County. The company can provide recommendations on how to mitigate losses and increase the chances of obtaining a successful claim when flood damage does occur.

As a business with years of experience serving Floridians, handling various types of disasters affecting the state of Florida, the company understands how overwhelming this process can be for homeowners facing displacement or property damage- making them an obvious choice for those seeking guidance navigating those often-complex procedures.
