

New Book Dissects Important Courtroom Battles and Groundbreaking Cases

JUSTICE AT TRIAL by James J. Brosnahan

CT, UNITED STATES, July 10, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gender discrimination, freedom of the press, voting rights, refugees, sexual harassment, false imprisonment—mention any headline in the nightly news, and legal legend James Brosnahan has tried a case. Harvard legal giant Laurence Tribe calls him a Lion of the Law. Now Brosnahan offers us a front-row seat in the courtroom as he goes before the bar with his memoir, JUSTICE AT TRIAL: Courtroom Battles and Groundbreaking Cases (Rowman & Littlefield Publishers).

JUSTICE AT TRIAL follows Brosnahan's career of 150 jury trials, taking us through the demanding, often controversial and suspenseful world of jury trials, tense appeals, filled courtrooms, locked jail cells, and corporate boardrooms. Each chapter follows a different case, including refugees on the Mexican border, gargantuan gender battles inside one of the largest corporations in the world, sexual taboos on national television, accusations of terrorism, government agents who cheat, innocent prisoners in jails, the constitutional right to speak and print the truth, bringing law to a war zone, poverty and murder on Native American reservations, hunger in America, and more.

“

For more than a half century, Jim Brosnahan has been one of the greatest and most courageous lawyers in the United States.”

Erwin Chemerinsky, Dean, UC Berkeley School of Law

Brosnahan's love of the law emanates from every page as remembers a childhood being confined to bed for more than two years after a bout of rheumatic fever, through grade school, and into college where he found self-expression as a member of the debate team. He tells how his life dramatically changed after being accepted to Harvard Law School, finding his purpose in a career that would become an inspiration to so many in the legal field.

Justice at Trial

The book already has received lots of praise.

"A lawyer's lawyer in the best possible sense, a lion not just of the trial bar but of the law, James J. Brosnahan has finally written the memoir every lawyer will want to read. Decorated, celebrated, and beloved, Jim is that truly rare master of both civil and criminal litigation who is also a great human being."—Laurence Tribe, Carl M. Loeb University Professor at the Harvard Law School

"Jim is the very definition of a trial lawyer, whose very strong belief in the legal system is reflected in all he does. He is an advocate for the rights covered under the constitution. He is a fantastic trial advocacy teacher and a wonderful storyteller. He is respected and admired by all." —Wendy McCormack, Executive Director, National Institute for Trial Advocacy

"For more than a half century, Jim Brosnahan has been one of the greatest and most courageous lawyers in the United States. Jim Brosnahan is in the California Trial Lawyers Hall of Fame, deservedly." — Erwin Chemerinsky, dean, UC Berkeley School of Law

"Jim Brosnahan has participated in important national cases for many years." — Former U.S. Sen. George Mitchell (D-ME)

JUSTICE AT TRIAL shares the excitement of the courtroom, the justice system's defects, the reforms lawyers seek, and the risks trial lawyers take. It's a life of towering achievement that will inspire anyone who respects the law. It is available on Amazon and other popular retail outlets where books are sold.

JAMES J. BROSNAHAN, a member of the California Trial Lawyer's Hall of Fame, is a federal prosecutor and a defense lawyer who has tried 150 jury trials. He was a senior partner at Morrison & Foerster, a preeminent 1,000-lawyer international law firm based in San Francisco. For 46 years, Brosnahan has lectured internationally for the National Institute of Trial Advocacy (NITA). He has authored articles for the American Constitutional Blog, Law 360, The California Historical Society, The Daily Journal (California's legal paper), the New York Times, Bloomberg Law, and the Los Angeles Times. He has appeared on national radio and television including ABC, CNN, Fox News, Larry King, National Public Radio, and PBS.

James Brosnahan

Deb Zipf
Meryl Moss Media Group
+1 203-895-3096
deb@merylmossmedia.com
Visit us on social media:
LinkedIn

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/631650184>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2023 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.