

Kingsview Partners' Regina Rinehimer Wins 2023 Bernardine Legacy Award For Community Leadership

Honor Acknowledges Rinehimer's Support for Professional Development, Education & Families

GRANTS PASS, OR, UNITED STATES,
May 4, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Kingsview Partners, a leading wealth management firm, is pleased to announce that Regina Rinehimer, Partner | Wealth Manager, has been named the recipient of the 2023 Bernardine Legacy Award from the Alvernia University Women's Council.

Regina's commitment to her clients and community is a testament to her dedication and leadership. Her outstanding work exemplifies the high standard of care we strive to provide at Kingsview Partners.”

Kingsview Partners CEO Sean McGillivray

The Bernardine Legacy Award is presented to exceptional Alvernia University alumnae and friends who have demonstrated outstanding success in their careers and have made significant contributions as role models and leaders in supporting women's causes. Regina's tireless dedication to community outreach efforts in the Greater Reading area and beyond has made her a well-deserved honoree of this prestigious award.

"Kingsview Partners is incredibly proud of Regina's accomplishment in receiving the 2023 Bernardine Legacy Award from the Alvernia University Women's Council", says Kingsview Partner's CEO Sean McGillivray. "Regina's commitment to her clients and community is a testament to her unwavering dedication and leadership. Her outstanding work exemplifies the high standard of care we strive to provide at Kingsview Partners."

The 5th Annual Bernardine Legacy Award Luncheon, to be held on June 7, 2023, at the DoubleTree by Hilton Reading, will recognize Rinehimer's achievements and provide an opportunity to share her story of success, community involvement, and advocacy.

Regina Rinehimer operates her independent Kingsview Partners office alongside her business partners, Jeffery Barnes and Radene Gordon-Beck, in Wyomissing, Pennsylvania and Miramar Beach, Florida.
