

Local Vancouver, BC Startup SimpliCity™ Unveils their Founding Partner: the District of North Vancouver

The partnership lays the foundation for transforming the way the District provides information and services online for their residents and business owners.

VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA, May 4, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The District will leverage SimpliCity's website and integration platform to enhance public service delivery and make information more accessible to all. SimpliCity's software will also enable select District staff to work more efficiently, freeing up their time for more strategic work.

"We are thrilled to be partnering with SimpliCity to bring this exciting new solution to the District and help shape how it matures," said Andrew Durnin, Director of Digital Services and IT.

"We're transforming the ways we inform, engage, and serve our citizens online — while fostering a more digitally enabled workforce — and SimpliCity is central to our evolution."

SimpliCity's Founder and CEO, Briana Sim, added: "We are proud to be working with the District of North Vancouver to develop innovative software that will help to improve public service delivery, data access and system interoperability, and make essential information more accessible to anyone, anywhere, and anytime. This partnership affirms our commitment to creating solutions that make a real difference in people's daily lives, and we look forward to working closely with the District to bring these innovations to fruition."

As the District embarks on this progressive partnership with SimpliCity, the possibilities for public service delivery are being reimagined. SimpliCity's platform is poised to redefine the way
