LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, May 4, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bridge and Acorn Entertainment and LAMA Entertainment are proud to announce that the award-winning feature film "Yellow Bird" has been officially selected to screen at the prestigious Los Angeles International Film Festival. With a unique blend of comedy and light drama, reminiscent of popular TV shows like The Office and Schitt's Creek, "Yellow Bird" promises to deliver a heartwarming and entertaining cinematic experience.

Directed, produced, and starring Angus Benfield ("Inventing Anna," "NCIS"), "Yellow Bird" is set in a small country-town grocery store and follows the story of Jake (Angus Benfield), a once-successful PR specialist, now a stock boy in his mid-forties, struggling with sobriety and his conscience. Jake's journey to happiness is filled with quirky characters and unexpected twists. With an incredible ensemble cast including Brian Doyle-Murray ("Caddyshack," "Groundhog Day"), Kathy Garver ("Family Affair"), and Plastic Martyr ("Little Women: LA", "Botched"), the film has already garnered multiple awards, including "Best Feature Film" at the Santa Monica International Film Festival, Mediterranean Film Festival, and Mabig Film Festival, as well as "Best Narrative Feature" at the World Film Carnival Singapore.

Shot on location in Shasta County, California, USA, and the Holiday Market in Palo Cedro, "Yellow Bird" is a testament to the creative vision of the talented team behind the film. Tony Jerris penned the script, with Cliff Goldsmith as the Cinematographer, Christopher Hawthorn as the Composer, and Ruth Benfield as the Production Designer. The film is produced by Bridge and
