

West Town Chamber of Commerce Announces Full Lineup and Programming for Do Division Street Fest

The fest will feature more than 30 Bands and two stages programmed by The Empty Bottle and Subterranean

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, May 4, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Ahead of the West Town Chamber of Commerce's much-anticipated Do Division Street Fest, the team is thrilled to announce the full 2023 live music lineup! Kicking off Chicago's festival season from Friday, June 2 through Sunday, June 4, 2023, the event will feature local vendors and electrifying live tunes on Division between Damen and Leavitt. In addition to two live music stages, patrons can enjoy a wide variety of local shopping, food, and plenty of ice cold beer, including varieties from local favorite Goose Island Beer Co., as well as spirits from White Claw and Deep Eddy.

To engage and entertain festival-goers of all ages, Do Division Street Fest will also feature a dedicated "Do Division Family Fun Fest" organized by A.N. Pritzker Public School and LaSalle II Magnet School, who are festival season benefactors along with Jose De Diego Community Academy. "Do Chicago Fashion Fest" will also return with local designer runway shows and vendors throughout the weekend, organized by Dynamic Salon. Further, Do Division Street Fest will welcome more than 30 bands across two live music stages throughout the weekend, programmed by two of West Town's renowned live music venues: The Empty Bottle and Subterranean. From local acts to national touring bands, the full 2023 schedule* is as follows:
