rising consumer demand for animal-derived products such as meat, eggs, and dairy items are also playing a significant role in driving the market's revenue growth.

Dietary fiber plays a vital role in promoting digestive health in animals and is an essential component in animal feed. It helps maintain intestinal health and reduces the risk of various diseases. The growing understanding of the importance of animal health among consumers is fueling the demand for high-quality dietary fiber in animal feed. Moreover, the current trend of treating pets as family members is leading to an increased demand for premium pet food that incorporates dietary fibers to support their digestive health.

Market Overview:

In the food and beverage sector, all businesses involved in the processing, packaging, or distribution of raw food materials are included. In addition to medications, this industry touches all human-made products, including fresh and packaged meals, alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages.

As a result of obesity, the global food and beverage industry is experiencing tremendous growth. As consumers' desire for healthy foods has increased, so has their demand for more detailed nutrition data. Both of these changes have caused companies to launch lower-calorie foods and tighten their control over how their brands are perceived.
