Sentry Innovations, LLC, was founded by Chris and Fonda Johnson. Both have extensive experience in the healthcare and business consulting industry. Chris Johnson, COO of Sentry Innovations, LLC, is a former medical sales consultant who has a background in healthcare administration and writing. Fonda Johnson, CEO of Sentry Innovations, LLC, has a healthcare background as a physician assistant and broad range of experience in business establishment and strategizing. Together, they have combined their knowledge and expertise to create a company that helps small organizations and entrepreneurs take their businesses to the next level.

"We understand the challenges that young entrepreneurs face when starting a business, and we are dedicated to providing them with the tools and resources they need to succeed," said Fonda Johnson, CEO of Sentry Innovations, LLC. "Our team of experts are passionate about helping young entrepreneurs achieve their goals and reach their full potential."

Sentry Innovations offers press release writing services to help entrepreneurs promote their businesses and reach a wider audience. They also provide marketing and branding services to help businesses establish a strong brand identity and increase their visibility in the market.

In addition, they also offer business plan writing services for start-up and distinguished businesses looking to secure Small Business Administration (SBA) funding and future investors. The plan lays out the company's objectives, strategies, and financial projections, providing investors with a clear understanding of the business's potential for success. With this addition to their suite of services, Sentry Innovations continues to support young entrepreneurs in their pursuit of success.

"We recognize that developing a comprehensive and compelling business plan can be a daunting task for many entrepreneurs," said Chris Johnson, COO of Sentry Innovations, LLC. "That's why we are excited to offer our expertise and support to help entrepreneurs develop a strong and effective business plan that can help them secure funding and grow their businesses."

In addition to business plan writing, Sentry Innovations offers a wide range of services designed to support young entrepreneurs. They provide marketing and branding services to help businesses establish a strong brand identity and increase their visibility in the market. They also offer business and financial consulting services to help entrepreneurs develop a solid business plan, manage their finances effectively, and navigate the complex world of business.

Sentry Innovations' e-books provide entrepreneurs with valuable resources to help them stay organized and focused on their business objectives. They cover a range of topics, including budget, weekly, and business planning, providing entrepreneurs with the tools they need to succeed.

To help improve financial literacy, Sentry Innovations provides financial classes that cover a range of topics, including budgeting, investing, and financial planning. These classes are designed to help entrepreneurs make informed decisions and achieve financial stability.
