

Old Telephone Linen Backed Photos Archive from American Telephone and Telegraph Co. - Over 300 Photos of Old Telephones

Scripophily.com, a leading online dealer of antique stocks and bonds, is offering collectors the opportunity to own a piece of history.

FAIRFAX, VA, UNITED STATES, May 8, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Scripophily.com is offering an exciting collection of items from the early years of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

A Superb Archive of Nine Telephone Equipment Photograph Books. Ca. 1920's to 1930's though the equipment photographed is primarily from earlier periods in telephone history. An exceptional variety of approximately 300 photographs of early telephones and telephone components are represented with some of the equipment dating as far back as 1878. In addition to the equipment represented, nearly 100 additional photos of various schematics and designs of telephone equipment are included bringing the total number of photos to approximately 400. These are first generation photographs and all are linen backed to facilitate their binding within the volumes. Recently acquired from a private collection, these photo albums were lodged in a corporate archive for many years. A typed list index indicating the specific photos is attached to the front of each volume. The photos are generally in excellent condition. Bindings display some marginal wear but remain intact. Truly an extraordinary and rare opportunity to acquire such a visually important trove of technology images related to the early telephone. <https://scripophily.net/old-telephone-photos-archive-from-att-over-300-photos-of-old-telephones/>

We also have a Alexander Graham Bell signed letter - PASSCO Certified. Alexander Graham Bell (1847-1922). Scientist; Inventor of the telephone; Educator. Bell's interest in transmitting speech electrically was an outgrowth of his interest in speech and in communicating with the deaf. He worked out the basic principles of the telephone in 1874, and was granted a patent for it in March 1876. Imprinted letterhead from his home Beinn Bhreagh in Nova Scotia. Bell writes to Edward Hall, Vice-president of American Telephone & Telegraph Company; "...upon my return from Washington I shall be glad to place in your hands one of the original printed copies of the telephone prospectus which I wrote for the English Company Mar. 25, 1878." Dated Dec. 5. Written in a secretarial hand and signed at the conclusion by Bell. <https://scripophily.net/alexander-graham-bell-signed-letter/>
