"Elif's rich and diverse experiences combine with her keen views on the governance of risk-taking to present a highly valuable board perspective wherever she serves," said David R. Koenig, President and Chief Executive Officer of the DCRO Institute. "We are very pleased to count her among our alumni and look forward to the impact she will have as she continues to set an example for others to follow."

The Certificate in Risk Governance® is awarded to those who have completed The Board Members' Course on Risk® - an intensive 17-course education program and evaluation. The curriculum is designed for current and aspiring board members who seek to advance the governance of risk-taking at their organizations and those who interact with boards. Taught by some of the world's leading figures in risk governance, the program features lessons by nearly 50 board members, c-level executives, and well-known authors from five continents. No course on risk for board members as robust as this - depth, practicality, and global expertise - exists anywhere else.

Elif Ates Ozpak

"I highly recommend the Certificate in Risk Governance® program to all fellow board members," said Elif. "The program was an exceptional opportunity to expand my knowledge and expertise in risk at the board level. It is an essential course for any director seeking to add risk strategy to their skill set. Thank you to the DCRO Institute for providing such a valuable program," she continued.

The fundamental Duty of Care for directors around risk is to ensure that our organizations take risks well in pursuit of our goals and ambitions. This course furthers the fulfillment of that duty.
