and CEO of The DCRO
Institute*

For the past ten years, Srengkong Ung has served as the Director of Corporate Affairs for the ASEAN Secretariat in Jakarta, Indonesia. In that role, he focuses on organizational development and operational excellence, strategic planning, enterprise resource planning, risk management, business continuity planning, and knowledge management with a specialty in non-profit/inter-governmental organizations. Srengkong is a certified Controls Specialist (CCS), a certified Knowledge Manager (CKM), and a certified Enterprise Risk Governance (CERG) professional. Prior to his work with the ASEAN Secretariat, he worked in several managerial roles for the Mekong Institute, the Mekong River Commission Secretariat, and the United Nations Development Program. Srengkong holds a Bachelor of Laws from the Royal University of Law and Economics, an MBA from Preston University, a Graduate Diploma in Inter-culture Management (the highest distinction) from Japan-America Institute Management Science, and attended a Ph.D. program in Management at Universitas Pelita Harapan.

"Cyber risk governance and the effective use of technologies are global issues," said David R. Koenig, President and Chief Executive Officer of the DCRO Institute. "In his tireless efforts for continuing professional learning and leadership role, Srengkong is setting a good example for leaders across the region; committing to knowledge-building as now is the time to garner the necessary skills for boards to oversee these critical areas."

The Certificate in Cyber Risk Governance<sup>SM</sup> is awarded to those who have completed an extensive education program led by a global suite of board members, leading C-suite technology executives, law enforcement, and intelligence experts, all with deep knowledge of technology and cyber. Candidate knowledge is validated by evaluation across all subjects covered.

Speaking about the credential program, Srengkong Ung said, "This is an important course to give insights to management and board about cybersecurity/threads and how to handle cyberattacks."

The fundamental Duty of Care for directors around risk is to ensure that our organizations take risks well in pursuit of our goals and ambitions. This course furthers the fulfillment of that duty.
