'IT'S SPRING...' by Armenian filmmaker Roman Musheghyan is a story about Aram Amatuni, a retired special forces spy who has devoted his entire life to serving and protecting his country and to creating a lawful government. His son, Gnel, is a successful businessman who to this day hasn't forgiven his father for putting the needs of his country before the needs of his own family.

“

The unexpected war further severs the father-son relationship.”

This conflict between father and son reaches its climax when Amatuni's grandson, a talented violinist who has the opportunity to study in one of the best European music academies, inspired by his grandfather's ideology goes against his own father's wishes and enlists in the mandatory military service from which his father has freed him using all of his connections.

The unexpected war further severs the father-son relationship, leading Amatuni to take a road of no return.

Roman Musheghyan was born in 1980 in Yerevan, Armenia. He has directed several films which were awarded at international film festivals. In 2016 Roman moved to Los Angeles and graduated at the American Film Institute's Creative Producing department in 2022.
