LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, May 8, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- "The Hitcher Girl" is a 2022 drama suspense thriller film about a woman who sets out to reach a hidden beach in Southern California by means of hitchhiking. Found naked, bloody and distraught on a deserted road in Montana, the girl is supposedly named after a Jewish demon "Lilith." She exudes a mysterious and seductive charm by all of those who come in contact with her. Unfortunately, she is also being perused by the police. The film has been signed up by Porter + Craig Film and Media Distribution for the OTT release and will soon be available on all leading platforms.

Porter + Craig is currently in talks with other streaming platforms all over the world to ensure the film reaches a much bigger audience. The distribution has shown a tremendous amount of trust in the film's story, production, and direction, as well as the cast members' incredible acting. This is just one of the many independent films the media house, widely regarded as the preeminent outlet for independent film and television, has provided audiences over the past few months. The film is currently available on VUDU.

The low-budget criminal drama Denis Sobolev wrote and directed keeps viewers on their toes throughout the film. Lilith sets off a chain reaction of events in her persistent search for the mythical Zula beach on the Pacific ocean, which transforms the lives of everyone she comes into contact with along the way. The eighty-six minutes of a road trip and several encounters deliver a perfect dose of a thrills and intrigue. Dave Knapp and Jason Batish produced the film.

Lilith is played by Rebecca Rivka Prodan; the film also stars Matthew James Nordquist, Marisha
