"AC was broken so I searched "air conditioning service near me" and contacted this company based on the Yelp and Google reviews. They were very responsive with their communication and kept me up-to-date the whole time the repair process was working. The cost of ac unit replacement and ac repair cost are very reasonable. The technician who came out was very friendly and easy to talk with and answered all of our questions. AC was fixed pretty quickly and we are back to a nice cool house before the summer apocalypse here in DC, I would recommend this company." - Will Lunsford, a customer of Tim and Sons, shared on Google reviews.
