

Branching Minds Named Finalist for Two Prestigious SIIA CODiE Awards

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, May 10, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Branching Minds, a leading education technology company that leverages the learning sciences and technology to help K-12 schools and districts effectively personalize instruction and intervention, has been named a finalist for two 2023 SIIA CODiE Awards, in the categories of Best Collaborative Solution for Teachers, and Best Evidence Management Solution. CODiE Finalists represent the best products, services and people in the Education and Business Technology Industries, and were selected by industry expert judges, including teachers and administrators.

"I started Branching Minds because, as a former classroom teacher, I desperately wanted a solution that could help me figure out how to leverage evidence-based practices for my students and better collaborate with other educators," says Maya Gat, CEO and Co-Founder. She adds "To be named a 2023 CODiE finalist in these two distinguished categories is an incredible honor and recognition that we are fulfilling our mission to empower all educators to effectively, efficiently and equitably support the holistic needs of their students."

"The 2023 CODiE Award finalists highlight the products and people who are out in front, leading their industries forward," said SIIA President Chris Mohr. "These honorees continue the proud tradition of CODiE Award finalists of recognizing the most impactful products, services and
