The Summit will also be the site of several Jamboree “Base Camp Bashes”, festival-like evening events with fun activities and exciting entertainment, where there will be a designated area for media. Beyond accommodations for the Base Camp Bashes, there will be no evening media opportunities. Transportation from the Ruby Welcome Center will be made available for those media wishing to attend Base Camp Bashes.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

The National Jamboree Media Team will assist media in securing interview requests where possible. Interview requests beyond designated times/topics/spokespersons should be sent ahead of time to PR@Scouting.org. Please note that we will try hard to accommodate specific media requests, but we cannot guarantee that all such requests can be granted, based on event schedules and spokesperson availability.

The Media Team may also be able to arrange for media to interview Scouts attending the event. However, media interested in speaking with a Scout group from a specific geographic region are advised to contact their local BSA Council to arrange for such interviews in advance of the event, as we may not be able to assist in the setup of media interview logistics with a local Scout once on site.

PREPARATIONS FOR BEING ON SITE

The Summit is a rugged, hilly, vehicle-free area, and media should be aware that there will be a significant amount of walking while at the event. You should plan to dress for physical activity as well as the summer temperatures and quickly changing weather patterns (rain). Sturdy, closetoed shoes are highly recommended. Wearing dresses, skirts or open-toed shoes may prevent you from being able to access the day's activities.

Media are also strongly encouraged to bring their own reusable water bottles, which may be refilled at one of the many watering stations available throughout the event. Hydration is extremely important to your safe Jamboree experience!

Again, there will be no private vehicles allowed on site, so we highly recommend limiting to the bare minimum the amount of gear you will need to cover the event. You will have to carry what you bring. If a member of the media has a physical or health-related condition that would prevent them from walking or standing for an extended period of time, please notify PR@Scouting.org so appropriate arrangements can be made.

MORE INFORMATION

Media inquiries may be sent to PR@Scouting.org. Please provide your name, media outlet, deadline, questions, and contact information. For more information on the 20th National Jamboree, as well as stock images and video, please see below.
