Jake Lewis, President at Jonas Chorum

Integrating Aavgo's Smart Reception desk into Chorum PMS allows hotels to provide a streamlined, contactless front desk. With most hotels facing labor shortages, this integration allows Chorum PMS to keep its customers a step ahead. On a daily basis, no matter what is happening with staffing, this partnership provides a digital alternative that enhances the guest experience.

“Automation is the wave of the future, and Aavgo + Jonas Chorum are committed to keeping us ahead with the latest innovation,” says Chase Santillanes, VP of Development at Peppertree Hospitality. “We wanted a kiosk that integrates with our PMS and does more than just check people in remotely. This provides one-on-one customer service with a live agent, which allows us to continue to deliver the level of service we rely on Chorum PMS to help us with.”
