

Seven Women Unveils New Summer Maternity Collection Inspired by Color Trends for Summer

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, May 15, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Summer has been one of the most inspiring seasons for painters and artists, from the Renaissance, impressionism to contemporary art. Artists like Claude Monet, Vincent Van Gogh, and Edward Hopper are renowned for their masterful use of vibrant skies, sunflower fields, deep blues, and stark sunlight.

Embrace an artistic spirit in your maternity wardrobe. Seven Women's newly launched maternity collection offers a colourful array of pieces that capture the essence of this vibrant season.

The PomPom Maternity Nursing Dress, The Ava Maternity & Nursing Evening Gown and the Cap Sleeve Scoop Maternity Top are all part of Seven Women's new collection of basic tops and dresses that can be worn most of the year, even when you're not pregnant!

For those that enjoy a simpler, less complicated life, easy dressing when pregnant, while still looking chic is what Seven Women is all about. Keri Russel's character from The Diplomat keeps her style despite the pressures of traditional dressing. Take Seven Women's new collection of basic tops and dresses that can be worn most of the year, even when not pregnant.

For casual occasions, the Pompom Maternity Nursing Dress is the perfect fit. Evening glamour shouts black all over the place. Like the grandmaster's paintings, classics never die. So, for a formal or a black-tie event like a wedding or graduation party, opting for the classic black dress never fails.

Seven Women's Maternity has a beautiful maxi dress that does not sacrifice elegance for comfort. The silky fabric of the Ava Maternity & Nursing Evening Gown in Caviar allows a comfy fit.
