

Take a Trip Through the Skies in Norman Currey's Aviation Masterstroke 'Airplane Stories And Histories'

Rising author Norman Currey writes a comprehensive book on the extensive records of flight

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, May 11, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The aviation industry has a rich history filled with inspiring stories of innovation and human proficiency. Norman Currey, an aviation expert, and independent author, presents Airplane Stories and Histories, a captivating look at the evolution of aviation.

The book takes readers on a journey through the history of aviation, featuring fascinating stories about famous planes such as the Wright Brothers' Flyer, the Lockheed Vega, and the Boeing 747. It also covers lesser-known aircraft, including the British Bristol Brabazon and the Soviet Union's Antonov An-2. Airplane Stories and Histories explores the development of aviation from its earliest days to the modern era, providing insights into the triumphs and tragedies of this remarkable industry.

Whether the reader's a seasoned aviation enthusiast or a newcomer to the field, going through the book is a breeze as Currey's expertise provides a fascinating perspective. Aside from being an accomplished pilot and an aviation engineer, Currey also lectured within the United States and abroad, and spent 30 years of his life at Lockheed, contributing to some of the most groundbreaking projects in aviation history.

Currey's legacy in aviation is nothing short of remarkable, and his contributions continue to inspire and shape the industry today.
