Jatheon Technologies Announces Automated Migration Tool

Jatheon Technologies Inc. has announced the launch of Jatheon Auto Migrator, a tool used for the automated migration of customer legacy data.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, May 11, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jatheon Technologies Inc., a tech company specializing in data archiving and ediscovery for regulated industries has announced the launch of Jatheon Auto Migrator, a tool used for the automated migration of customer legacy data.
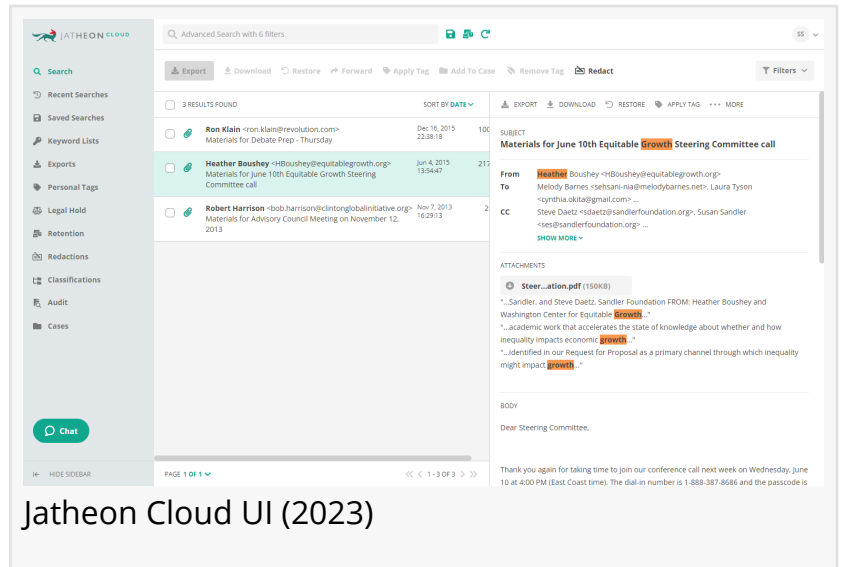

Jatheon Auto Migrator (JAM) is a proprietary, advanced tool designed to streamline the migration process of customer historical email into Jatheon's archiving system. JAM revolutionizes data migration by eliminating customer effort, minimizing errors, accelerating the process, and reducing manual work.

With JAM, customers can now enjoy a hassle-free data migration experience. The tool automates the entire process, minimizing the need for customer involvement. Manual data migration is prone to errors, which can lead to data loss or corruption. JAM ensures a flawless transition by leveraging cutting-edge algorithms and intelligent mapping techniques. The tool validates and verifies every piece of data, leaving no room for errors. JAM also accelerates the migration process, significantly reducing the time required to transfer massive volumes of email data. Finally, it eliminates the need for extensive manual work, allowing organizations to allocate their resources more efficiently.

"At Jatheon, we are committed to delivering innovative solutions that simplify the data management process for our customers," said Marko Dinic, CEO of Jatheon. "Data migration can often be a complex and time-consuming task, requiring significant effort and resources from organizations. Jatheon recognizes the challenges faced by its customers when transitioning from legacy systems to modern data archiving solutions. JAM is a game-changer in the realm of migration, ensuring a seamless and rapid transition to our archiving system, and a stress-free migration experience for our customers."
