"The creation and launch of our own affiliate partner program to diversify the people who share UMC products, with the ultimate goal of growing a stronger ecosystem for independent creatives," said Gerard Longo, Underground Music Collective Founder and CEO. "We are always looking for new ways to grow and adapt in an ever-changing landscape, while building greater awareness and creating meaningful opportunities for our international community of musicians and creatives. Our UMC Ambassadors will help lead the charge."

The UMC affiliate opportunity is currently available in the United States. New affiliates earn up to $30 in commissions on sales when they share UMC merchandise and service offerings through their personal affiliate links. By sharing UMC's ever-evolving merchandise and service offerings, new affiliates can enjoy a competitive compensation plan. Earning commission has never been simpler or easier to tap into.

Interested parties can visit the UMC website at undergroundmusiccollective.com to apply for the newly launched UMC Ambassador program.
