We are proud to introduce AllDigital E-Commerce Solution to the market.”
CEO of KR Group Africa, Gilles Émeric

Coined from the fast-changing needs of businesses, AllDigital E-Commerce Solution represents a new approach to e-commerce solutions. “The product offers a wide range of features that companies need to develop and operate an e-commerce business with ease. For instance, the solution allows businesses to easily manage their inventory, products, orders, and online payments. Also, businesses will be able to offer customer mobile apps, seller mobile apps and delivery mobile apps without having to worry about intricate technical knowledge plus it comes with free technical support for a year,” said the Global Operations Lead & Lead Developer of KR Group Africa, Allan Kaweireku.

AllDigital E-Commerce Solution is a one-of-a-kind product that is loaded with features that help businesses in various aspects of their online operations. This innovative solution offers multi-currency and multilingual support capabilities, which enable companies to trade seamlessly with customers both locally and or in different countries. The solution also features intuitive product pages through its websites, optimized for SEO and enhanced customer shopping experiences.

"We are proud to introduce AllDigital E-Commerce Solution to the market," said the CEO of KR Group Africa, Gilles Émeric. "Our team has worked tirelessly to develop this product, which is not only user-friendly, but also has the most advanced features to help online businesses thrive in today's competitive world. This product is ideal for fast-growing e-commerce companies looking for assured seamless technology services, and we believe it will revolutionize the e-commerce industry."

AllDigital E-Commerce Solutions will be launching exclusively for one company per country, which means that companies will have enough support for their online operations. The product provides free technical support that is available for 24 hours for a period of 1 year, making it easy for businesses to keep their sites up and running without disruption.

The AllDigital E-Commerce Solution's target audience is e-commerce companies that are looking for innovative ways to boost their online sales. KR Group Africa believes that fast-growing e-commerce companies will benefit from the solution's features and be able to streamline their operations while delivering a better shopping experience for their customers.

KR Group Africa's all-digital solution is set to change the way businesses operate in the e-commerce sector. The solution is also designed to make it easy for businesses without technical knowledge to develop and operate their online store. The solution's features include a user-friendly interface that makes it easy for businesses to create and manage their stores. The solution also offers a range of payment options that make the checkout process easy, secure, and efficient for businesses and customers alike with a possibility to integrate more via API.

AllDigital E-Commerce Solution is set to launch on May 15, 2023. KR Group Africa is highly committed to ensuring that businesses have the best experience possible with their product. The team will be available to assist businesses 24/7 during the first days of the product's launch.

In conclusion, KR Group Africa is excited to launch AllDigital E-Commerce Solution. The product is set to revolutionize the e-commerce sector by giving businesses easy access to advanced features used by large e-commerce companies. The solution is designed to make it easy for businesses to set up and manage their online stores, providing an exceptional customer experience while streamlining business operations. With this solution, KR Group Africa is committed to helping businesses experience growth by providing the best technology services in the market.
