EMARGEN RESEARCH

Rising adoption of EPS in the packaging industry is driving revenue growth. EPS is utilized as a safe packaging material for a variety of healthcare products, including medical devices, medications, and laboratory samples. In recent years, there has been a significant demand for durable, shock-absorbing packaging materials in the healthcare industry, which is expected to increase the adoption rate of EPS in transportation of healthcare equipment.

One of the key drivers of the EPS market is the growing demand for sustainable and eco-friendly packaging solutions. EPS is 100% recyclable and can be reused in a variety of applications, making it a popular choice for packaging materials. The rise in e-commerce and online shopping has also contributed to the growth of the EPS market, as the need for reliable and durable packaging materials continues to increase.
