Visitors passing by just wanted to come in to this fun tiki bar called 'Pupu' and loyal local fans of Uncle Bo's found out we were here and started coming in and spreading the word.”

Ho Suk Lee, Managing Partner

The Pupu House on the first level is a family-friendly restaurant and bar that will transport you back in time to the "Golden Era of Waikiki" with its nostalgic and playful "tiki bar" vibe. It can accommodate about 60 guests on tables and at the bar. They offer a delectable menu of dishes to please every palate, from Uncle Bo's favorites, which have gained thousands of loyal devotees in Hawai'i and around the world, to his own twist on local-style dishes which pay homage to iconic local eateries and utilize locally-sourced ingredients. In addition, the bar looks like something straight out of the set of "Blue Hawaii" with its thatched roof, bamboo, colorful glass balls, and shell accents, and the team of skilled bartenders offers a full bar including amazing signature cocktails. The Pupu House also features a Late Night Happy Hour/Industry Night from 10:00pm 'til last call nightly with selected menu items at 50% off and the signature "The Sea Chest" cocktail for $12. A souvenir shop is also open at the entrance selling various logo merchandise like t-shirts and bags.

"We are super excited to have both The Pupu House and 'Kiki's finally open," said Ho Suk Lee, President and Managing Partner. "My partners - Chef "Uncle Bo" Pathammavong and my wife, Hokulani Lee - and I are so grateful because we have been busy since we opened our doors with both locals and visitors. We opened without fanfare as we wanted to get settled in first, but visitors passing by just wanted to come in to this fun tiki bar called 'Pupu' and loyal local fans of Uncle Bo's found out we were here and started coming in and spreading the word. Now we're opening 'Kiki's upstairs on three nights - and we're available for parties, too, so contact us for your graduation parties, birthday and anniversary celebrations, and even corporate events. We plan to expand the schedule upstairs and also offer breakfast and lunch downstairs at The Pupu House in the near future so there's a lot more excitement to come!"
