

REBOOT IMAGINE TAKES BOLD STEP IN COMMERCIAL XR WITH STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP AND EXCLUSIVE RELEASE ON KNOXLABS

SAN FRANCISCO , CA, USA, May 16, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Reboot Imagine, a trailblazing company at the forefront of virtual reality (VR), augmented reality (AR), and mixed reality (MR) entertainment hardware services and support, is thrilled to announce its strategic partnership with KnoxLabs, a leading online retailer of cutting-edge immersive technology products. This collaboration marks a significant milestone for Reboot Imagine as it unveils the highly anticipated Reboot XR Arcade Edition, an advanced wireless VR Arcade solution exclusively available on KnoxLabs.com.

Through this groundbreaking partnership, Reboot Imagine will expand its service and support offerings to encompass all AR, VR, and XR products sold on KnoxLabs.com, including its renowned services and support packages. This comprehensive suite of services ensures that customers investing in the next generation of virtual reality can rely on Reboot Imagine's United States-based XR customer service and support company to accompany them every step of the way, providing assistance 24/7, 365 days a year. Notably, Reboot Imagine has already solidified its position in XR by delivering IT support for arcades featuring VR games and experiences, ranging from local arcades to national chains.

Central to this partnership is the introduction of the Reboot XR Arcade Edition, a complete package designed to empower businesses to establish successful VR, AR, and MR entertainment ventures. The Reboot XR Arcade Edition offers two variants, the XR4 and XR6, both of which provide seamless wireless VR arcade setups, efficient equipment installation, setup configuration by industry professionals, and customized solutions tailored to each business's unique immersive requirements. These wireless systems set new industry standards for commercial VR, ensuring an unparalleled experience for users.
