"Yellow Bird" is a poignant comedy about the search for happiness, featuring a stellar cast, including director Angus Benfield ("Inventing Anna," "NCIS") in the lead role, alongside Brian Doyle-Murray ("Caddyshack," "Groundhog Day"), Kathy Garver ("Family Affair"), and Plastic Martyr ("Little Women: LA," "Botched").

Set in a small-town grocery store aptly named "The Yellow Bird," the film tells the story of Jake, a once-successful PR specialist now grappling with sobriety, a critical gnome, and personal failings, as well as Scotty, the store manager caught in a job he doesn't love.

The IFS Film Festival is a premier event celebrating independent filmmaking. "Yellow Bird" will screen alongside films by industry heavyweights, including Josh Brolin, Charlie Day, Eva Longoria,
