enabled Silvur to directly integrate into the digital banking platform providing a seamless banking experience. This integration contributes to Jack Henry's growing ecosystem of over 850 fintechs, providing approximately 8,000 financial institutions with relevant financial products and services for their account holders.

Founded by CEO Rhian Horgan, a 17 year JP Morgan executive, Silvur has modernized what retirement decision-making in America looks like. In a sector filled with complexity, Silvur uses data to deliver bite sized, personalized education that allows Americans to retire with confidence. Through the Silvur experience consumers age 50+ have access to personalized tools and retirement calculators alongside over 1,000 lessons on topics including Social Security, Medicare, Taxes in Retirement and more. Silvr uses its powerful data platform to ensure that regional financial institutions expand their share of the retirement wallet. Rhian Horgan said “We’re thrilled to embed our technology through Jack Henry™ digital banking platform. The Banno Digital Toolkit made it easy for us to chart this new path for securing retirement together. Digital banking is about more than transactions- it's the place where consumers come to access their full financial picture. By embedding Silvr in your digital banking experience, financial institutions are bringing timely, personalized education to their consumers and ensuring they grow their share of the $1T+ retirement wallet.”
