"As a kid growing up in the '80s and '90s, skateboarding was such a huge and important part of our everyday life", says Amber Thibaut, Coco Moon founder, "my friends and I grew up attached to our skateboards. After school, weekends, and holidays, it was part of our culture. I'm now sharing that with my own children as they learn skateboarding tricks like dropping in, ollies, kickflips and manuals. It brings back so many memories. My love of skateboarding and seeing how much my kids and their friends love it is the inspiration behind our latest print".

"At Coco Moon, every collection is designed with memories in mind" continues Amber. "Cherishing memories and creating beautiful new memories is what we strive for with our designs. The quality of our products ensures they remain treasured keepsakes and can be passed down from generation to generation".

Available in the signature Coco Moon muslin swaddles, bamboo onesies, coveralls and pajamas, and kids tee-shirts, the new collection is available online in sizes newborn to 4T.
