

Black Panel Press Unveils the Hardcover Edition of "Illegal Cargo"

A Graphic Novel Inspired by the Resilience of Migrants

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, May 30, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Black Panel Press is thrilled to announce the release of the highly anticipated hardcover edition of "Illegal Cargo." Written by Mexico City based Augusto Mora, this captivating thriller takes readers on a heart-wrenching journey inspired by the struggles of migrants.

"Illegal Cargo" weaves an extraordinary tale that delves into the depths of human resilience and the unbreakable bonds of family. Set against the backdrop of a treacherous journey to the United States, the story follows José Sendero, an elderly Salvadoran man who, upon discovering that his daughter may be in grave danger, embarks on a fateful trip to find her. Faced with perilous obstacles and unforeseen challenges, he must summon every ounce of strength and courage to protect his family.

Through the pages of "Illegal Cargo," Mora paints a vivid portrait of the hardships endured by migrants, highlighting their determination, sacrifices, and unwavering hope. The story shines a light on the realities faced by individuals who undertake perilous journeys in search of a better life, offering readers a compassionate and empathetic glimpse into their experiences.

The point of this comic is to raise awareness about social issues just as much as it is to tell a good story. On both accounts it succeeds.”
