/EINPresswire.com/ -- In the new book "God And Jesus: The Identity Crisis," author Edward G. Palmer debunks the myth that Jesus is God and explains who he is. Actual Scriptures, not taught and hidden from believers, eliminate the confusion surrounding the identity of God and Jesus for those ready to break free from the chains of Orthodox Christian theology. It's time to rediscover the true nature of God and Jesus. Look no further than the new book "God And Jesus: The Identity Crisis!"

In this eye-opening book, author Edward G. Palmer boldly challenges the traditional belief that Jesus is God, citing evidence from scripture that contradicts this Orthodox Church doctrine. Jesus claimed to be a man in John 8:40 and to have a God in John 20:17. Jesus also taught that his God was our God, and we are to worship only his God, the Father. How can that be true if Jesus is God? There is an identity crisis, and Christians have been misled for centuries by theologians teaching against what Jesus taught. There are implications for our relationship with God and our prospect of eternal life in heaven, according to Jesus in Revelation.
