

New Documentary Film Explores Expat Life in Dubai and the Pursuit of Happiness

In Fairways to Happiness, an American expat investigates individual ideas of happiness while an amateur British golfer attempts to conquer the course.

OSLO, NORWAY, May 25, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In this new documentary feature film, Fairways to Happiness, an American expat in The United Arab Emirates—the first country in the world to have established a Ministry of Happiness—investigates individual ideas of happiness and what life is really like for regular expats in Dubai.

Experts and expats from across the globe—including a priest, a monk, educators and everyday folk narrate the complex journey to contentment. At the same time, the film follows Eugene, struggling to lower his score on the golf course—a quest that often mirrors the emotional rollercoaster of life.

People from virtually every country in the world now live and work in Dubai and visit Dubai, so it's become a real crossroads. "I lived in London before coming to Dubai and I thought that was one of the most multicultural cities in the world. And I thought that was going to be different. It's going to be a big change for me coming to Dubai, but actually it's just as diverse as London." - Sarah, Irish Expat "Here in Dubai, you interact with different cultures every day." - Glenn, Norwegian Expat.

The film also explores the growing emphasis on well-being science and positive education in schools as students, parents and educators attempt to navigate the perils of a social media landscape where children are now living two lives—online and in the real world.

Fairways to Happiness is a Route 201 Media production. The film was shot, directed and edited by Douglas Morrione. This is his second feature documentary and follows his award-winning film about cowboy artists from the American West: Everything in the Song is True.
