

Vigter Announces Office Relocation to Foster Growth and Expansion Plans

New Location Offers a Modern and Professional Workspace to Drive Team Synergy and Deliver High-Quality Services

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, May 22, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Vigter, a leading healthcare staffing and medical services company that is veteran-owned and operated, is thrilled to announce the relocation of its corporate headquarters. The move to this new location in San Antonio, Texas comes as part of the company's growth and expansion plans.

The new office, located at 10010 San Pedro Avenue, enables Vigter to better serve its clients, employees, and candidates. The facility provides the company with a modern and professional appearance in a high-rise building, as well as ample space to accommodate the company's growing team. Vigter will have the potential to expand within the building as it continues to enhance its ability to provide high-quality medical staffing and services to clients throughout the world, with a refreshed focus on travel healthcare staffing.

We are all very excited to move in to our new headquarters and look forward to supporting our clients from this location for many years to come”

Jeremy Calvert, CEO

“We are all very excited to move in to our new headquarters and look forward to supporting our clients from this location for many years to come” stated Jeremy Calvert, CEO.

The new space reflects the dependable Vigter culture and its drive to continue to support clients' medical mission.

The building is centrally located and close to the airport, which improves Vigter's efficiency, productivity, and enhances the company's image. The new office is now open and operating during regular business hours. Clients and partners are invited to visit the new location and see
