

Dr. Rajeev Fernando: NY Metro Top Doctor for Ninth Year, Acknowledging Excellence in Infectious Diseases and Aid

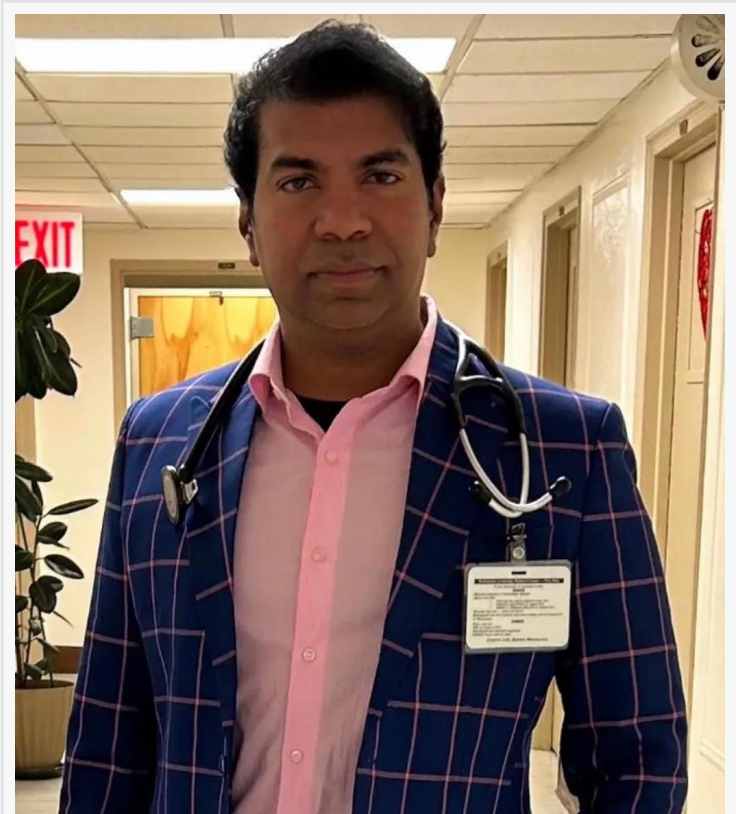

Global Medical Luminary Recognized for his Unwavering Dedication to Patient Care, Education and Crisis Response Amidst Challenging Global Health Scenarios

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, May 22, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For the ninth year in a row, the New York Medical Association recognized Dr. Rajeev Fernando as a New York Metro Top Doctor for 2023. This prestigious accolade highlights Dr. Fernando's consistent excellence in the medical field since 2014.

Dr. Fernando's global reputation as an Infectious Diseases Expert has made him a prominent figure in the medical community. He is globally renowned for his expertise and dedication to combating infectious diseases. In 2020, Dr. Fernando traveled to Wuhan

China, where he actively contributed to the efforts to understand and control the novel Covid-19 virus. Additionally, he played a crucial role in treating patients during the West Africa Ebola outbreak in 2014 and investigating the Zika virus outbreak in Brazil in 2016. These experiences have further enhanced his expertise and commitment to addressing global health challenges.

Recognizing the pressing need for specialized care in Ukraine due to the ongoing conflict, Dr. Fernando established what he dubbed a "Center of Wellness." The Center not only provides mental health and medical services to refugees, but also offers training programs to frontline healthcare workers. Dr. Fernando trains these workers on critical topics including how to mitigate chemical weapons attacks and bioterrorism. By equipping healthcare professionals with the necessary knowledge and skills, he aims to enhance the capacity to respond effectively to potential threats in conflict situations, ensuring the safety and well-being of vulnerable
