Convey helps dominKnow | ONE users publish content more efficiently to an LMS plus instantly deploy performance support tools like searchable knowledge bases, job aids and more to help employees.

The Convey dynamic publishing service completes the evolution of dominKnow | ONE into a full content creation and knowledge management solution that can power any organization's learning ecosystem.

"We're very excited to showcase what Convey can do for everyone looking for productivity gains in their learning and training strategy. No one else combines such powerful authoring and knowledge management suite with a dynamic publishing platform. It has already saved countless hours and paid for itself many times over for clients." – Peter Cizik, dominKnow CEO dominKnow | ONE's complete award-winning content solution can:

- Support formal and informal learning wherever needed in your learning ecosystem
- Leverage synchronized single-source content to reduce development time, simplify updates and ensure content consistency
- Create true responsive content with no limitations
- Easily produce software simulations to deliver as Show Me, Try Me, Guide Me and scored assessments
- Protect your content with customizable permission controls

- Safeguard content with versioning and rollbacks
- Reduce development cycles with integrated reviewing

Convey provides one-click publishing to:

- Streamline formal learning publishing and update processes to ensure immediate, up-to-date content in an LMS
- Power informal learning with no-IT-needed hosted sites for searchable knowledge bases, job aids, and more

Convey allows customers to instantly publish and deploy searchable knowledge bases, job aids and more so employees and other stakeholders can access knowledge when they need in the flow of work. Create one source of truth that allows for multiple revisions/uploads and is always up to date. □

Gain time and create efficiencies by eliminating the need for an LMS administrator to update each and every course change. Remove content delivery delays for learners and provide an uninterrupted content schedule. □

About dominKnow

For more than a decade, dominKnow has been creating eLearning software for small teams and large organizations. Organizations around the world trust dominKnow | ONE's award-winning solution as their source of truth for all learning and knowledge content. The solution is a web-based authoring and content management solution that helps teams collaborate in real-time, share, and re-use content across projects, and easily engage subject matter experts in the review process.

Combining the award-winning dominKnow | ONE centralized content creation and knowledge management platform with Convey's dynamic publishing service creates a full end-to-end solution to help organizations get training, information and knowledge to employees, customers, and stakeholders wherever they are, whenever they need it.
