The plans for the Online Skills Training Program were first announced in September 2022 at an event, hosted by Deloitte Canada, to celebrate Aman Lara's 1st Anniversary and its success in bringing over 3400 Afghan refugees to Canada. To date, Aman Lara has provided critical assistance to over 6000 Afghans and over 500 Ukrainians escaping the violence in their countries.

“

"We worked hard with Aman Lara and this group of partner companies to organize the project resources and get it underway," Paul Jacobelli, President of EdTek, said. "We could not have done this alone and are grateful to supporters at Deloitte Canada, Topyx, and the other partner companies for assisting Aman Lara with this important initiative."

About Aman Lara:

Aman Lara is a non-profit organization that was founded in 2021 by Canadian Armed Forces veterans, former Locally Employed Staff (LES), and Canadian volunteers who were concerned about the security situation in Afghanistan and wanted to help vulnerable Afghans evacuate and resettle in Canada and other safe jurisdictions. In 2022, Aman Lara quickly adapted its services to aid in the evacuation efforts during the war in Ukraine, facilitating safe passage for asylum seekers, sick children, and other civilians bound for Canada or other safe destinations.
