The app features a user-friendly interface that allows users to easily navigate and find the right class for their needs. Users can choose from a variety of classes, including mat Pilates, reformer Pilates, Pilates on the Cadillac/Tower or Wunda Chair, and Pilates with props. The app also offers personalized recommendations based on users' preferences and fitness goals.

"We're thrilled to launch our new mobile app, which will make it even easier for our users to access our high-quality Pilates classes online wherever they are," said Lesley Logan founder of OnlinePilatesClasses.com. "Our goal is to make Pilates accessible to everyone, and this app is an important step in achieving that."

The new app also includes features such as the ability to take class, connect with other members, view free tutorials, listen to the podcast (Be It Till You See It), and shop for merchandise and Pilates flashcards. App users will be the first to know about upcoming events and classes.

Introducing the New OPC APP

"We're excited to offer our members a more personalized and convenient way to practice Pilates," said Brad Crowell, CEO of OPC. "Whether you're a beginner or an experienced Pilates practitioner, our app has something for everyone."

"Vyten is thrilled to partner with OnlinePilatesClasses.com to develop a modern mobile app experience for the community," said Vincent Phamvan, Founder of Vyten. "This partnership is a testament to our commitment to delivering an unparalleled experience to our clients and their customers."

The app is available for download now on the Apple and Google Play stores. To learn more about OPC and their new app, visit their website at OnlinePilatesClasses.com.
