

'Born In Chicago' at the NYC Independent Film Festival

Ode to blues documentary 'BORN IN CHICAGO' told by Dan Aykroyd

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, May 24, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- At the 15th edition of the NYC Independent Film Festival in New York the focus lies on blues music with the compelling documentary 'BORN IN CHICAGO' by Bob Sarles and John Anderson.

'BORN IN CHICAGO', narrated by Dan Aykroyd, is a soulful documentary film that chronicles a uniquely musical passing of the torch. It's the story of first generation blues performers who had made their way to Chicago from the Mississippi Delta and their ardent and unexpected followers - middle class kids who followed the evocative music to smoky clubs deep in Chicago's ghettos. Passed down from musician to musician, the Chicago blues transcended the color lines of the 1960s as young, white Chicago musicians apprenticed themselves to legends such as Muddy Waters and Howlin' Wolf.
