production in less than 90 days. The roll out bolstered AmTrust's technology infrastructure by providing a best-in-class surety management and automation system hosted on Bond-Pro's Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) platform. Bond-Pro Carrier Edition™ will assist AmTrust in rapidly growing its surety book while reducing its processing costs and underwriting turnaround time. AmTrust utilizes Bond-Pro's solution to streamline account management, bond issuance, reporting, and other Surety related functions.

Sam Zaza, President of AmTrust's Surety division stated, “We engaged Bond-Pro to implement a comprehensive enterprise-level solution that enables our team to manage our entire surety business in real time. Their solution makes it easier to engage our agents, better manage our risk, and drive profitability. Bond-Pro is a true partner to AmTrust ensuring on time and in budget software delivery.”

“We've focused on accelerating implementation projects and shortening the time to production, enabling our clients to quickly recognize value”, said Fred Duguay, CEO of Bond-Pro. “This has been fueled by improving our implementation methodologies and incorporating best practices from lessons learned. It's a testament to the combined maturity of our team, processes, and software technology platform”.
